Stonewall

Stonewall, July 26.- We are so very thankful for the nice rain we have had. It surely can change the looks of everything.

Listen: Don't forget the revival will begin at Bethel Church next Sunday, July 31. The beloved pastor, Rev. Aaron Smith will do the preaching. Everyone is invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Chick and Mrs. Henry Beard were notified last Thursday of the extreme illness of their son-in-law and brother-in-law, Mr. Joe Stephenson, Jr. The Beards left at once to visit him and his family. They returned home Sunday and report that he is critically ill. He is in DePaul Hospital, Norfolk. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. David Cawthorne of New Jersey are visiting with her sister, Mrs. R. H. Thornhill and her brothers, E. W. and C. E. Carson.

Rev. and Mrs. John Leitner had as their guests last week his daughter and granddaughter, from Richmond.

Impressive services were held at the Promise Land Baptist Church last fourth Sunday morning by the pastor, Rev. R. Q. Lawing. The church choir rendered special music. The offering for the day was very good. A large number of visitors attended the service. Plans were announced for the annual revival which will begin on the fourth Sunday in August, at 11:30 A. M. The Rev. Louis Jones, of Charlottesville, West Va., will be the guest speaker. The Rev. Sanderfier, pastor of the Jordan Baptist Church and his choir will conduct the 3 P. M. service on the fourth Sunday.

An unusually large crowd attended the annual revival and homecoming at Jordan Baptist Church last Sunday at the 11:30 A. M. and the 3 P. M. service. The pastor of the church delivered the morning sermon and special music was rendered by the church choir, under the direction of Mrs. Mattie Trent West. The 3 P. M. srvice was conducted by the Promise Land Baptist Church and pastor. Special music was rendered by the Promise Land Church choir. A total offering of $102.47 was reported.

The annual revival will begin at the Galilee Baptist Church on the first Sunday in August, at 11:30 A. M. The pastor of the church will deliver the morning sermon. Dr. W. E. Feyer, pastor of the White Rock Baptist Church, Lynchburg, and his gospel chorus will conduct the 3 P. M. service. The public is cordially invited to attend. Dinner will be served by the ladies of the church.

A large crowd attended the funeral services for the late deacon Dave Chatham last Thursday, July 21, at 1 P. M. The pastor of the church was in charge of the service and delivered the eulogy. He was assisted in the service by the former pastor of the church, Rev. J. A. Carter. Music was rendered by the Mount Shiloh Baptist Church choir. Acknowledgements were read by Mrs. Louise Canada. Deacon Cheatham was the oldest deacon of the Promise Land Church. He served on the board for 60 years, and was a trustee of the church. Burial was held in the church cemetery.

He is survived by two daughters, Miss Alberta Cheatham and Mrs. Pauline Hancock, of New York City; one grandson, deacon William Hancock, of Promise Land, one brother, one grandson, and several nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Virginia Watson is improving in the Lynchburg General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Johnson and daughter, and Mr. Vann Patterson left Monday for Baltimore.

Mrs. Theda Harris is in Lynchburg General Hospital for a special operation.

Farm News

Alfalfa seeding time is just around the corner. The only change in seeding recommendations is the analysis used. In fertile soils with a medium or higher level of potash, use 500 to 700 lbs. of borated 0-30-15; on fertile soils with a medium or higher phosphate and a low level of potash, use 800-1000 lbs. of a borated 0-14-14. On thin soils that are low in fertility, use 1000-1200 lbs, of 2-12-12. There are good reasons for these changes. New research shows that phosphate promotes seedling development whereas excessive amounts of nitrogen and potash often reduce the germination and establishment of alfalfa seedlings.

Calves should be kept gaining. With short pastures on most farms, rely on creep that phosphate pastures and milk. A good ration consists of 3 parts coarsely ground corn to 1 part oats to each 700 lbs. of this mix, use 100 lbs. of oil meal.

Dry weather usually increases the amount of pinkeye in the herd. Check animals regularly for signs of eye drainage.

Flies are heavy on many cattle. For efficiency in gains and animal comfort, treat. For beef cattle, the simplest arrangement is back rubbers. Toxaphene is one of the better materials to use. For dairy cattle, spray with pyrethrins or synergist once a week, or dust backs and necks once every three weeks. One tablespoon per animal.

In 1959, steers sold through the feeder sales brought $14.00 more per head than through weekly auctions and heifers brought $11.00 more. The Lynchburg sale has increased in numbers by 10% a year. Nominations for this sale must be in by August 15.

The new Diagnostic Laboratory is now open. It's located on Route 460 about one mile east of the Junction of Routes 460 and 501. The policy outlined by the lab officials is as follows:

The lab will serve a twenty-county area, therefore it is impossible for the lab to handle every sick animal that may exist on the many farms. Large animals will, through necessity, be screened by a veterinarian. Poultry specimens may be brought in, however, it is desirable that again, these be screened by a feed service man or professional agriculture worker. Should a dairyman like to have samples of milk checked for fat test, the dairy inspector for this area will take the official test.

THE VIRGINIAN HOME

By Mrs. Audrey S. Robinson
Vepco Home Economist

We have just returned from a delightful vacation through our neighboring states to the South. The beauty of the crape myrtle in the Carolinas, as well as here in Virginia, is magnificant! Further toward the South, we counted the different varieites -- six lovely shades, varying from an off-white, light pink through the vivid pink, red and on into deep purple.. A sight to behold!

By the wonderful facility of memory, I can still close my eyes and view the lovely red climbing rose, setting Appomattox into a flame of beauty through the late spring of this year. Rarely does anyone see such a lovely sight. I drove around for quite a while trying to take in as much of this beauty as possible. I wonder if you have thought of acclaiming the red climbing rose as the Appomattox County Flower. (From its abundance, maybe you already have!) Anyway, your beauty in May was something to be proud of, and I'll be watching for the red climber again next Spring.

Something else is blooming, and adding to the beauty of Appomattox. Or have you noticed?

Appomattox is "leading the way" in the area in which I work, with a display of Medallions. These bloom all year 'round, and it really isn't fair to call them a display. They are well earned.

A Medallion is a symbol of the Hallmark of Evidence in the electrical industry. It has no local limits, now that it is backed by the Edison Electric Institute... It may be worn by homes, new or remodeled, that meet the high standards of wiring, with full housepower; light for living, and work saving. Any home that meets these standards can apply for a Medallion at no cost.

The particular variety of Medallion that is blooming in Appomattox is the Gold Medallion. This has the standards of a Bronze Medallion, as I have described above, PLUS the lifetime joy of Electric Heat. The homes that wear the Gold Medallion prove, by living electrically — tomorrow.

Appomattox can be proud of the number of homes that have the Bronze Medallion and Gold Medallion symbols. Look for them as you visit your neighbors. They are budding out everywhere.

If you are interested in having some hints on what a Gold Medallion home should have, see Emmett McCaw or Capt. W. W. Hyde at the Power Company.

Bronze Medallion homes: Lloyd Bryant, James Hall, E. Gordon, Robert Lamb.

KNOW THE WEATHER

By E. H. Sims

What is the sign in the sky when high up, on an otherwise clear day, you see an increasing spread of webby cirrus?

This is a bad weather sign. It means a disturbance, which could be either ordinary warm front activity, including rain, or a severe disturbance - usually the former - is on its way.

This is true because the leading edge of a warm front leans forward. The saint is so grandual upward that the cirrus edge of a warm front might move in above you while the surface front is several hundred miles behind.

If you are planning a picnic or some fair-weather activity for the next day and see this sky above you, make alternate plans just in case.

VIRGINIA SUFFERS FROM DROUTH, VPI LISTS SUGGESTIONS FOR FEED

Drouth is taking its toll of feed and forage crops in many areas of Virginia, and there's need for quick action on farms.

Specialists at VPI have compiled some suggestions to help assure plenty of livestock feed next winter— in spite of dry weather now.

More immediately, they say, to graze one cutting of alfalfa if you are short of pasture. If necessary, other hay crops that have not already been cut and stored for hay can be grazed.

Sudan grass or pearl millet may be seeded as late as to 10 to 12 weeks before the average date of the first frost. Neither will yield as well as if seeded earlier, but they will give a boost to dwindling feed supplies.

Top-dress pastures for additional grazing this fall and early next spring. During August or early September, seed small grain for late fall, winter and early spring pasture and/or for grain.

Cannery Conference Held At Appomattox High School

Mr. Karl Ford, of the Ball Glass Company, was counselor for a cannery conference held in Appomattox recently, Mr. W. C. Dudley, the Area Supervisor of Vocational Agriculture, presided at the meeting, which was attended by about a dozen instructors from central southside Virginia. Mr. Ford had on exhibit some liquid spices which had been developed to use in community canneries for spicing catsups, pickle relishes and other products. He also showed the group a special valve arrangement that canneries could use on their retorts to make canning in glass practical and economical to the canneries. The Appomattox County Canneries are already prepared to can in glass, however, though many in the state are not.

Hosts for the conference were the Home Economics Instructors, Mrs. Madeline Thomas and Mrs. Lucy Green, and Vocational Agriculture Instructors, Mr. R. N. Ashworth, and Mr. W. L. Motley.
